

National Music Industry Association

APPLICATION FOR DOMESTIC MEMBERSHIP

We herewith apply for Domestic membership in the National Music Industry Association and, if elected to membership, agree to abide by the Association's Constitution and By-Laws. The By-Laws establish the following requirements for Domestic membership in the Association:

"Domestic" membership in this Association shall be limited to those engaged in the jobbing, wholesaling, manufacturing, importing or distribution of musical merchandise or parts, material, and supplies for the same and:

- a. have an established separate place of business located in any of the 50 States in the United States of America;
- b. Be financially responsible and have a separate business identity, recognized in the trade as a manufacturer and/or distributor of musical merchandise, or parts, materials and supplies for the same;
- c. All sales of member's products are made to the trade i.e., other manufacturers, wholesalers, importers or retailers of musical merchandise.
- d. It is a requirement for "domestic" membership that a minimum of seventy-five percent (75%) of applicant's "gross annual sales" be derived from wholesaling or manufacturing, are sales for resale and do not include sales to companies more than 50% owned by applicant's owners.
